It is believed that the sup-It is believed that the supplies so frequently referred to as being on the Spanish flying squadron were of this character rather than food supplies, which makes it all the more important that Sampson and Schley should succeed in keeping Adm, Cervera from reaching Havana or Cienfuegos or any port in Cuba connected with Havana by rail.

Commodore Schley probably is well down on the Florida coast now and should be able to guard the Florida straits by Tuesday or next day. His appearance on that side of Cuba would enable Sampson to bring his ironclads with perfect safety into Cienfuegos on the south side and with this disposition of our naval force and the free use of a considerable number of our scouting vessels it is hard to see how the Spanish fleet can escape from the Gulf of Mexico or the Caribbean sea. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 16.—The Sec-ond regiment, divided up into battal-

partment to Due Time by Bradley, But Have Not Arrived FRANKFORT, Ky., May 12 -Gov. Bradley received a telegram from the war department stating that his requisition made in detail for the equipment of the Kentucky state guard had been filled, and shipment of blankets, etc., had been sent from Philadelphia on May 6 via fast freight to Lexington,

The equipments have not arrived, and loud complaint is now being made by the soldiers who are suffering discomnure for lack of equipments. Gen. Collier held a conference like the Bradley in regard to the matter.

"I have used all diligence to secure the equipments, and made the order at the first possible moment. They should have been in Lexington before the soldiers were encamped. The delay is occasioned probably by the great rush of similar orders. The shipment has been slow, but is not the fault of this end of the line. It is known here that the date set for the movement of the first regiment of Kentucky volunteers from Lexington Friday, May 20.

Funds for Equiping Troops LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13. - The board of trade has passed a resolution pledging the city of Louisville to raise the $10,000 or $15,000 necessary to properly equip the Kentucky troops. The proposition, if accepted by the authorities at Frankfort, will place the city in the position of advancing the money to the state. There is no authority for taking the money out of the city treasury without an act of the legislature. The money will be returned by the state as soon as possible. This action provides a means of sending the Kentucky troops to the front fully equipped. Bills Incorrectly Enrolled. FRANKFORT, Ky., May 18 .- Accordng to the clerks in the office of the serctary of state a large number of bills passed by the late Kentucky legislature have been incorrecty enrolled, and all kinds of complications are predicted as a result. In one instance where the original bill purported to amend section 48 of an act, the enrolled bill makes it amend see Another in its title gives the year 898 instead of 1898. Gov. Bradley vetoed several measures because o similar defects, but it appears that out his signature.
